2000 students

[illegible] closely tied to federal and state funding allocations.

Halupnik said that some other districts with which Linn-Mar shares students and resources have not yet finalized their figures. They will do so during October, but Linn-Mar's are complete and official.

[illegible] students from [illegible] are important because they impact [illegible] calculations and are held on Mondays

various departments and buildings may appear to give reports of interest and importance. Students sometimes make presentations as well.

As an example, two of the people who gave information to the board at the last regular meeting [illegible] Transportation [illegible] Manager [illegible] Food Services [illegible] Knight.

The [illegible] School Board [illegible] invited [illegible] of the [illegible] main [illegible] who [illegible] keep [illegible] hear decisions.

3. Remarks should not contain names or other identifying information about students, teachers, administrators or other personnel due to the potentially confidential nature of certain situations.

4. The Board may place presented information on a future agenda or delegate action to the administration, at its discretion.

An agenda is posted on the Linn-Mar web site no [illegible] 24 hours prior to [illegible] regarding an agenda should be directed to the superintendent or Board president prior to the meeting and allow ample time to process [illegible]

[illegible] Board [illegible] meeting will be [illegible] with a work [illegible] and the [illegible] at 7 p.m.

[illegible] by:

Dupaco

Lean, prime-cut home equity loans.

(319) 366-8231 | www.[illegible]

Note from Mary Lou Pazour

On Saturday, October 5, I mailed 1002 postcards to registered voters in Marion. I am totally embarrassed for neglecting to include "Paid for by Mary Lou Pazour for Council"! Please accept my apology.

Mary Lou Pazour
Candidate for Marion City Council, at-large position.

(This apology also paid for by Pazour for Marion City Council)

[illegible] REALTY AND AUCTION [illegible]

5.7 m/l Acre Acreage Auction

Sunday, October 27 • Noon

1200 Waubeek Rd. • Central City, IA

Auctioneers note: Really cute acreage with 1½ story home with newer roof, siding, windows, [illegible] bedrooms, 2 baths, with mother-in-law quarters. Nice 40 x 80 enclosed shed and other out buildings. Lots of beautiful mature trees and 2 ponds, with about 3 acres of tillable ground. Only a mile off of [illegible] than 2 miles from Central City. A short drive to Marion. This is a very scenic and quiet acreage that a family would enjoy for the rest of their lives. House does need a little work on the inside, but a very awesome acreage.

[illegible] items to be auctioned off following the real estate.

[illegible] down day of auction with signing of [illegible] balance at closing in approximately 30 [illegible] warranty deed and updated abstract. [illegible] of possession.

Owner: Mark Colony Estate

[illegible] REALTY & AUCTION
[illegible], BROKER/AUCTIONEER
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] Realty & Auction, Since 1976
[illegible] Main St., Anamosa, IA 52305
[illegible]

YOUR STORIES