5.

Part B. Income sources other than Business, Occupation, or Profession identified in Part A. As required by Iowa Code section 68B.35, in the categories below list each source from which you received more than $1000 in gross annual income during the previous calendar year. The amount or value of the holding is not required to be listed. Include a source if the total amount of any income received jointly with one or more persons exceeds $1000, but do not report income received solely by your spouse or other family members. For the purposes of this Part, a source is reportable if the gross income produced was subject to federal or state income tax during the reporting period. You may wish to refer to your federal and state tax forms while completing this part.

If you received no other income more than $1000 from any source other than from a business, occupation, or profession identified in Part A, check here and proceed to Part C.

NO OTHER REPORTABLE INCOME: ☐

1. Securities. You need not state the number or value of securities of any specific corporation or other entity you owned during the reporting period; you need only identify the nature of the business of any company in which you owned securities that generated over $1000 in gross income during the preceding calendar year. Securities "owned" through investment in a mutual fund is indicated by identifying only "mutual fund" as the source. Income generated by multiple holdings in a single company are deemed received from a single source.
