SCHEDULE G

BREAKDOWN OF MONETARY EXPENDITURES BY CONSULTANT

The primary purpose of Schedule G is to provide information about campaign activities that have been contracted with a third party. A "consultant" is a person/entity who is paid to provide services for a candidate which includes but is not limited to "consulting, public relations, advertising, fund-raising, polling, managing or organizing". A "consultant" could be a professional person in an advertising agency or public relations firm, but it could also be a friend or associate whom you pay to do some campaign work.

Generally speaking, consultant activity will occur only in large campaigns or in heavily contested races where there is extensive media advertising, telemarketing, or fund-raising activity. However, there are exceptions, and you should carefully review your campaign to make the determination of whether your campaign has consultant activities. Direct payments to the consultants are reported on Schedule B; Schedule G provides information about why a consultant has been hired and includes independent expenses paid by the consultant which were not listed on Schedule B.

List the committee's name at the top of each Schedule page. If you are amending the form, check the box to indicate this in the top right-hand corner.

PART I

1. List the name of the person who fits the description of "consultant" above, along with the complete address.
2. In the space "Contract Period", show the period of time for which you are paying the person to provide services.
3. For "Total Anticipated Compensation for Performance", list the amount of money the person will be paid for services. If you will also reimburse for actual expenses the person incurs, make a statement to that effect.
4. "Estimates of Performance" should provide an explanation of the activity and service the consultant will provide.

PART II

This section discloses expenditures made by the consultant from the fee you paid him/her to pay for some of your campaign expenses. For instance, if you paid the consultant a lump sum to place all of your campaign ads in the area newspapers, and the papers billed and received payment from the consultant, these transactions should be listed here. Do not list in this section reimbursement you make for the consultant's mileage, meals, etc. These expenditures are shown on Schedule B. Do not list any amounts already shown on Schedule B. List only items that the consultant paid on your behalf from the fee received from you. A consultant is required to furnish this information to you. Be sure that this is known by the consultant when you hire the person so that the information will be provided to you.

1. List the date the consultant made the payment.
2. List the name/address of the person/organization to whom the payment was made.
3. List the purpose of the expense - describing clearly what was purchased or provided.
4. List the amount of the expenditure.
