

The following attribution statement was inadvertently left off some of the flyers that were distributed on October 31, 2002 asking for your vote for Paul Gronbach as Sheriff: "Paid for by the committee to elect Paul Gronbach". We apologize for this oversight. (45U)

NOTICE

On the insert for "Measure C" in this week's Clayton County Register and The Market Basket, 10-30-02, inadvertently left out was the disclaimer. It should read:
Paid for by Jim Daughtry, River Bluffs Resort, LLT, 1719 S. Wacouta, Prairie du Chien, WI 53821.

NOTICE

An advertisement for my recent campaign for Iowa County Supervisor stated that it was paid for by my campaign committee before the committee was registered. The committee has now been registered and all paperwork is available for viewing at the Iowa County Auditor's Office.

Paid for by Alice DeRycke for Supervisor Committee

An advertisement for my recent campaign for county supervisor stated that it was paid for by committee to re-elect Jim Gustafson. However, no such committee was registered and it was actually paid for by Jim Gustafson, 885 550th St., Storm Lake, Iowa.

Paid for by Jim Gustafson, 885 550th St., Storm Lake, Iowa.

NOTICE

Advertisements or my recent campaign for county recorder stated that they were paid for by Peterson for Recorder. However, the committee was not registered and it was actually paid for by Sue Peterson, 893 Short Ave., Marengo, Iowa.

Paid for by Sue Peterson, 893 Short Ave., Marengo, Iowa

An advertisement for my recent campaign for county supervisor stated that it was paid for by The Committee To Elect Bob Jorgensen. However, no such committee was registered and it was actually paid for by Bob Jorgensen, 533 N. Fulton, Newell, IA 50568

Paid for by Bob Jorgensen, 533 N. Fulton, Newell, IA 50568

Advertisements for my recent campaign for state representative did not indicate who paid for them. They were paid by my campaign committee. Paid by Committee to elect Grundberg to the House.

A brochure was distributed during the Primary Election advocating the campaign of Rick Larkin for state representative that did not state who paid for the costs of the brochure. They were paid for by the Lee County Labor Council.

Paid for by the Lee County
Labor Council

AN ADVERTISEMENT

in support of the recent Public Measure A stated that it was paid for by The Extension Awareness Committee. However, the committee was not registered and should have stated that The Extension Awareness Committee officers included Teresa Huedepohl as treasurer and Diana Roberts as chairperson.

CORRECTION:

The Pat Taylor campaign ad from the Waverly Democrat, October 17th and the Waverly Super Shopper October 22nd omitted the line "Paid for by Taylor for Senate, Jim Ridihalgh, Treasurer." This omission was made by the newspaper staff, and the Taylor campaign was not responsible.

CORRECTION:

The Pat Taylor campaign ad from the Oelwein Daily Register, October 19th and the Oelwein Ad Express of October 21st omitted the line "Paid for by Taylor for Senate, Jim Ridihalgh, Treasurer." This omission was made by the newspaper staff, and the Taylor campaign was not responsible.

- NOTICE -

A brochure for my recent campaign to the Iowa House of Representatives did not state who paid for it. The brochure was paid for by my campaign.

Paid for by Mertz for Representative

In the October 21st, 22nd and the 23rd issue of the Daily Gate City a political ad was placed advocating the campaign of Tracy Vance for County Supervisor.

These ads were inadvertently run without a disclosure of who paid for these ads.

These ad were paid for by the Vote Vance Committee.

Paid for by the Vote Vance Committee.

12-5-02

In the October 21st and 22nd issue of the Daily Democrat a political ad was placed advocating the campaign of Tracy Vance for County Supervisor.

These ads were inadvertently run without a disclosure of who paid for these ads.

These ad were paid for by the Vote Vance Committee.

Paid for by the Vote Vance Committee.

12-6-02