

During the recent Hotel/Motel tax ballot issue, a flier was inserted in the newspaper and large signs were placed advocating a yes vote that did not state who paid for them. The fliers and signs were paid for by the Indianola Chamber of Commerce, 515 N. Jefferson, Suite D, Indianola, Iowa 50125, Carol Sinclair Executive Director.

Correction

During my recent campaign for Dallas County Supervisor, newspaper advertisements appeared but did not disclose who paid for them.

They were paid for by Committee to elect Shirley for Supervisor, Velda Groover, Treasurer.

This ad is paid for by
Marvin Shirley, 1905 Lexington Rd.
Minburn, IA 50167

During a recent election cycle a letter was sent to thank voters for past support as supervisor from District 3. The letter endorsed several candidates for state and local office. The letter contained an attribution that made it appear that my campaign committee paid for the letter. All costs of the mailing were paid for from my personal funds.

Kremer ad Black Hawk correction

The Kremer for Treasurer political ad that ran in the Hometown on Oct. 16, 2002, was incomplete as a portion of the ad was missing.

The disclosure "Paid for by the Kremer for Treasurer Committee" was accidentally left out.

The Hometown apologizes for this oversight and any inconvenience that it may have caused the Kremer campaign and the Iowa Ethics and Campaign Disclosure Board.
