Subject: Vote Today! Aaron Saylor for Cedar Rapids

Hi,

I'm contacting you again because my first email did not contain the attribution statement as required by Iowa law. It is important to me that we follow a high standard of ethics, both in campaigning and in governing. This email, and the prior email, are paid for by Aaron Saylor for Cedar Rapids.

I hope that you will vote today. The earlier email is as follows:

I'm contacting you to ask you to vote Aaron Saylor for City Council! This election will be a key point for us to make our voice heard in the future of Cedar Rapids. I have a passion for our community, and I will listen, and work hard to make your vision happen.

1. Take care of people
2. Be smart about the budget
3. Work together to improve our community!

As the city takes on flood recovery and rebuilding we will face complicated financial decisions. I have the financial experience to help steer us through these budget discussions. We need to find new efficiencies in our city departments and make the right decisions which will benefit the citizens of Cedar Rapids for the long term.

The key to our future will be bringing all views to the table, and listening to the people of Cedar Rapids. We are a stronger nation and community because of our diversity and each person in our community has inherent worth. We need to focus on what will help our citizens, and move forward together.

I have great hope for our community, and want to invest my time and energy in making it a better place, and one that all Cedar Rapiidians are proud of.

Thank you for your consideration! For more information, watch my 30 second video, <http://ow.ly/xLVK> or Facebook
