

COURTESY PHOTO

icate Russell Hall, the newly renovated music hall. The building ormer professor and head of the department of music.

ite-of-the-art recording facility, the completely refurbished 400-ns and more. There will be tours and a reception following the ed Famous Dave's restaurants in several states to donate a portion of their sales and contribute to the fight against childhood hunger in America.

"In preparation for this event, I've learned that one in every six kids in America is at risk of hunger, and that can lead to devastating lifelong consequences," said Staci Cirksena, general manager of the Cedar Falls Famous Dave's Legendary Pit Bar-B-Que® restaurant. "It's great to know we can make a difference so kids can get the nutritious foods they need to develop their full potential."

For more information, please visit www.famousdaves.com.

MAROLD LEAVES COMMUNITY $500K

The Community Foundation of Northeast Iowa is proud to announce Fredrick (Fred) W. Marold left a $500,000 gift to the community through his estate. As a result, the Fredrick W. Marold Fund has been established at the Foundation as a permanent endowment. He died in September 2007.

Marold was a business and civic leader in the Cedar Valley. He was instrumental in the creation of Exceptional Persons of the Cedar Valley, Goodwill Industries of Northeast Iowa and the Family & Children's Council of Waterloo. He was also founder of Permanent FREDRICK W.

 MAROLD

Correction:

*In my recent run for CF School Board I sent a number of postcards to area residents without the disclosure of "Paid for by..." as required by IA law.
 Indeed these postcards were paid for by Jim Brown For School Board.*

Thank you

*Cedar Falls
 Times Falls
 9/20/08*