PUBLIC NOTICE!

NOTICE: Eleven months ago, in the August 29, 2007 copy of this newspaper, I ran two political ads to promote my re-election to the WACO Board of Education. My ads were subsequently submitted by an individual, who requested confidential status, to the Iowa Ethics and Campaign Disclosure Board. The individual alleged my ads did not contain a statement of who paid for them, and also alleged that WACO Community Schools had paid for my ads. I have provided documentation to the Iowa Ethics and Campaign Disclosure Board to clear up who paid for my ads. I need to clear it up with the public as well. I, JoEllen Jepson of 110 West 4th Street, Wayland, Iowa, paid for my two ads for WACO School Board re-election out of my own personal funds. WACO did not pay one cent of my ads. Also, WACO did not determine, nor did I, the placement of the ads in the newspaper. The editor of this newspaper determines the layout. I apologize for not realizing I needed to have a statement on the ads stating who paid for them.

*Thank you. JoEllen Jepson
(This notice was paid for by JoEllen Jepson)*
