Program To Address Transfer of Personal Property

Have you ever thought about who will eventually get your personal belongings? Everyone has non-titled property like wedding photographs, collections, or a yellow pie plate that may have special meaning to them. Deciding who should receive these items can be a challenge facing the item's owner and family members.

The Women, Land and Legacy committee is sponsoring a program on the transfer of non-titled property. "Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate" will be presented at the Malvern Community Building on Tuesday, November 19th. A soup and pie social will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the program following. The program will be facilitated by WLL members, and will include information and activities to help participants....

- * recognize the sensitivity of the issue,
- * determine what object's to transfer,
- * decide what's important when distributing items,
- * establish distribution rules that are fair, and
- * understand legal and tax issues.

Participants are asked to bring a small personal property item to the program that they received from, or would like to pass on to, a family member.

To pre-register for this program, please contact ISU/Mills County Extension at 712-624-8616, or ISU/Fremont County Extension at 712-374-2351. A fee of $5.00 will be charged at the door.

Correction

The 2 ads for "Mike Blackburn for Mayor" that ran on October 24 and 31, 2013 in the Malvern Leader were inadvertently ran without notice that they were paid for by Mike Blackburn - 1310 Marion Avenue in Malvern, IA.
